

Leasing Frequently Asked Questions

Do you have apartments available?

As you might imagine, sometimes we have several vacancies, as people move out, and sometimes we don't. The best thing to do is to call us before you are in a serious situation in need of housing and set up a time to tour. We maintain a waiting list, so even if we don't have something available right now, we will notify you as soon as we have an opening. There is no fee or obligation to apply.

Do you have one-bedroom or two-bedroom apartments?

All of our apartments are comfortable, convenient and easy to maintain. Attractive one-bedroom apartments in the Weinberg and Tallin Buildings include fully-equipped kitchens, one full bath, and carpeting and individually controlled heating/cooling systems. Large one-bedroom apartments in the Tallin Building include all of the above, plus a second full bathroom, extra closets and additional living space. A limited number of studio apartments are available.
