The mission of the Yom HaShoah commemoration continues – to remember the victims, honor the survivors, and educate the community about the history and lessons of the Holocaust.

This year, the commemoration will be virtual and continue the traditional focus on St. Louis survivors through their eyewitness accounts of the Shoah. The program will honor our community's Holocaust Torah scrolls and include music, liturgical readings, and prayers.

YOM HA'ATZMAUT Israel Independence Day A Joyful Musical Celebration

Tuesday, April 13

3:00 PM - 4:00 PM

Join Cantor Seth Warner, from Congregation Shaare Emeth, as we celebrate Yom Ha'atzmaut with a live virtual concert hosted by Crown Center. We will feature some of the most recognizable Jewish music during this joyous celebration of Israel's Independence Day. Friends and family are welcome.

RSVP by calling 314-991-2055.

It's easy to attend – just call Crown's free conference line at 314-762-1375.

RPI-Introduction to Movement, Virtual Mondays, April 12 & 26 at 2:30 pm

Looking to get into shape? Intro to Movement is upbeat and fun – you move the entire time while working on your cardio, balance and stretching. Exercise from the comfort of your own home at your own pace.

“This class has helped to improve my balance. I can’t wait to exercise with Kim again!” – Babs, Intro to Movement class participant

No charge. RSVP by calling 314-991-2055.

To participate, join from your home through a Zoom Meeting:
